COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

Bachelor of Arts

AAGAARD, Mrs. KURT (ANN HEIDE) — 16309 Wallingford Ave. North, Seattle 55, Wash. Ann and Kurt '61 were married June 23, 1963, in Wichita, Kansas. Ann is teaching biology at Roosevelt High School and Kurt is working on his Master's thesis at the University of Washington.

ABRAHAM, BARBARA — 317 West 100th St., New York City, N. Y. Barbara was a secretary for Macy's in San Francisco all summer. Now she has a job more in her line as Art Editor at Harcourt, Brace & World. She is also attending the New School taking a special course on "The Human Figure in Art." Like every other Oberlinian in New York she has discovered that the city is populated almost entirely by Oberlin people.

ADAMS, CHARLES F. — 426 Prospect St., New Haven, Conn. Charlie left in the middle of November to travel all around Europe and do some studying before starting back to school next year.

AHERN, WILBERT H. — 628 Library Place, Evanston, Ill. This address is only good until Dec. 28 on which date Bert and JANET TURBYNE will be married in Princeton, New Jersey. He has started work on his Ph.D. in History at Northwestern U.

ALEXANDER, ANN — 283 Soundview Ave., White Plains, N. Y. Ann attended Dartmouth College last summer to complete her degree. She reports: "With happy hearts and a good deal of naivete, a high school friend and I are going to work our way around the world getting teaching jobs and volunteer work whenever possible. In November we will board a Chinese freighter and head for the Orient."

ANDERSON, REED — Av. de los Toreros, 55, c/o Tapia, Madrid 2, Spain. Reed studied six weeks in New York at N.Y.U. last summer preparatory to the Graduate Program in Spain. He is working on his M.A. in Spanish Literature and History at the University of Madrid.

ANDERSON, Mr. and Mrs. WILLIAM (ELLEN GRAHAM ANDERSON) — 1860 Stadium Place, Ann Arbor, Michigan. Bill has a full tuition scholarship to the University of Michigan Law School and Ellen is teaching piano privately and keeping house.

ANGLE, BURR — Care of Harris Wofford, U. S. Embassy, Addis Ababa, Ethiopia. The Peace Corps seems to be as popular with the '63 grads as it was with the '62ers. Burr has been in Ethiopia with the Peace Corps since September.

ANGLE, MARTHA L. — 5009 Del Ray Avenue, Bethesda, Md., Washington 14, D. C. Martha worked for the Elyria Chronicle Telegram after graduation. She is now back at home and as far as we know is not settled yet.

ANTHONY, ELIZABETH W. — 124 Ferndale Rd., Scarsdale, New York. Elizabeth started working for the YWCA in Yonkers as Assistant Director of Health and Education in September. She expects to complete her A.B. degree this fall by attending night courses.

ARIAN, MICHAEL L. — 2196 Barrington Road, Cleveland 18, Ohio. This is Mike's home address but send your mail there as he is on the road. He called long distance from Lancaster, South Carolina, to say that since Labor Day he has been on the fall circuit of county fairs in the Carolinas with a Carnival. And, "I recommend a season on the road to every graduate of Oberlin. You will learn salesmanship, showmanship; gain poise and confidence of a sort you do not get in school." He spent the summer running the Fascination Game at the Chippewa Lake Amusement Park. Mike plans to leave the carnival about Nov. 1 but thinks that eventually he will "get with it again." It seems to be in his blood.

ASHBY, CORALYN V. — 4425 Windom Place, N. W., Washington, D. C. 20016. Coralyn is very busy teaching the first grade in Montgomery School in Rockville, Maryland.

ATKINSON, Mrs. STEPHEN M. (LINDA T. MILLER) — 117 S. Main St., Oberlin, Ohio. Linda and Stephen Atkinson '66 were married on June 11, 1963. Linda is teaching Latin and sophomore English at the Elyria, Ohio High School.

AXILROD, BARBARA GAY — 4038 Burge Hall, State University of Iowa, Iowa City, Iowa. Barbara attended the University of Arizona summer program in Mexico to complete her degree. She is studying for her Masters in French at the State University of Iowa.

BACHMAN, WANDA LOUISE — 401 Allison St., N.W., Washington, D. C. After a strenuous summer working for the Jewish Foundation for Retarded Children, Wanda has entered the University of Virginia in Charlottesville where she hopes to get a M.Ed. in Special Education. As we go to press we do not have her Charlottesville address.

BAILEY, A. LOUISE — 1300 Louisiana, Lawrence, Kansas 66044. By June of 1964 Louise hopes to have her M.A. in Spanish from the University of Kansas. She is studying on an NDEA grant.

BALL, BEVERLY E. — 121 East 88th St., New York 28, N. Y. Bev is still studying and working at the same time. She is studying directing at the Columbia-Berghoff Studios and works in the buying office of Sears Roebuck Co. She maintains that she will continue her studies at the drama studio until she makes a living at it. She and JUDY STEIN are sharing living quarters.

BARDO, DALE D. — 2049 East 115, Cleveland, Ohio 44106. Carl McDaniel '64 and Dale toured New England on bicycles last summer. Dale is now hard at work in the Western Reserve U. School of Medicine.

BARNETT, ROBERT LEIGH — 921 W. Daniel, Champaign, Ill. (as of 1962) "If anyone has any ideas of engineering, I highly recommend the 3-2 plan. The final two are very busy, but if the first three years are at Oberlin, all else comes easy." So writes Bob who received his B.S.E.E. from Case Institute of Technology in the spring of '63. He worked this past summer with Cincinnati & Suburban Bell Telephone Co. He is now on a leave of absence from that company to study for his M.S. in electrical engineering at the University of Illinois.

BARRETT, ALISON L. — 1310 Admiral Drive, Alexandria, Va. 22307. According to Alison, "after diligent and extensive pavement-pounding" she landed a job as Personnel Management Assistant in the Harry Diamond Laboratories (U. S. Army Ordnance) in Washington, D. C. She is enthusiastic about her work.

BARTHOLOMEW, LINDA JO — Allan Guest House, 56 Polmuir Road, Aberdeen, Scotland. Linda Jo is studying English at Aberdeen University.

BASH, Mr. and Mrs. JEFFREY P. (JOYCE MARTENS) — 220 East 26th, New York, N. Y. 10010. This couple had a commencement day wedding in Fairchild Chapel. Joyce is teaching applied chemistry and general science in Erasmus Hall High School and studying for a Masters of Science in Education in her spare time. Jeff is an actuarial trainee in the Agents' Compensation Dept. of the New York Life Insurance Company. He says he got this job by dint of much "leg" work.

BELL, DONNA DAE — 2212 Ward Street, Berkeley, Calif. Donna spent the summer working with disturbed children. She has a research fellowship to study psychology at the U. of California at Berkeley where she reports she has found a large Oberlin colony.

BENHAM, HELEN W. — 500 Riverside Drive, New York 27, New York. Helen is living at International House while studying the piano at Julliard.

BIBER, MICHAEL P. — 1009 East 57th, Chicago 37, Ill. "Oberlin friends, prospective U. of Chicago students, and the like are welcome at this address," says Mike who is in the U. of Chicago Medical School. He spent the summer studying mathematical biology and physical chemistry. The shift from a small town college to a big city university was eased by the very large number of Oberlinians studying at the University. Mike also writes that he really misses the Co-op.

BIGELOW, WILLIAM L. — Benton Hall, Pacific School of Religion, Berkeley 9, Calif. Bill was at the Sciences and Arts Camp in Mass. last summer. He is now Youth Director at the Hillside Presbyterian Church in Oakland, Calif., while studying at the Pacific School of Religion on a field work scholarship.

BLAUSTEIN, DAVID P. — 63-24 Boelsen Crescent, Rego Park, N. Y. 11374. Last summer David studied constitutional law at the New School for Social Research and promoted aluminum doors. He is now studying at the N.Y.U. Law School and working part time in the Law Library.

BOARDMAN, SUSAN D. — 4306 Emerson St., Hyatsville, Md. 20781. Sue is working for the Department of Agriculture as a lab technician in the Plant Virology Laboratory.

BORUT, DONALD J. — 522 South Division St., Ann Arbor, Mich. Vitamin-charged Don has a research assistantship at the U. of Michigan School of Public Administration. But the one thing he doesn't want us to forget is his engagement to CAROL KIRTLEY.

BOWERS, JANET V. — P.O. Box 69, Cortland, Ohio 44410. Janet and SUE WEBSTER covered Europe last summer. Janet is looking for a job and is open to all suggestions.

BRANDON, RUTH M. — 99 Claremont Ave., New York, N. Y. 10027. Last summer Ruth was a counselor in a hospital home for children with rheumatic fever or related complications. Now she is at the Union Theological Seminary working on a B.D. which she hopes to get in 1966.

BRECKENRIDGE, JOHN C. — 603 E. Catherine Street, Ann Arbor, Mich. John spent the summer in Hartford, Conn., working for The Traveler's Insurance Co. He is now doing graduate work in math at the U. of Michigan.

BRESNICK, DAVID — 14 Barcelona, San Francisco, California. David must have set some kind of a record last summer. He hitch-hiked 10,000 miles — all the way to Alaska, up the Alcan Highway. Alaska was overrun with college students looking for summer work. He met GREG FEINSINGER in Anchorage. However, David did get one month's work as a "gandy-dancer" for the White Pass-Yukon R.R. He is now working as a "Kelly-Girl" in San Francisco.

BREWER, CELIA ANNE — c/o Peace Corps Representative, American Embassy, Dar-es-Salaam, Tanganyika. On October 26 Celia completed an 8 week Peace Corps training program at Syracuse University. Then she went to Tanganyika for an in-country training period. About January 1 she will begin to teach English and other subjects to grades 7 and 8 in boarding schools in Tanganyika.

BROEMMELSIEK, K. ANN — Chabanel R.D. 2, Chesterfield, Mo. Ann has not let us in on her future plans. Last we heard she was planning a summer in Europe.

BRYAN, JAMES A. — 5632 Enright, St. Louis, Mo. Jim has enrolled at Washington University to do graduate work in comparative literature.

BUCK, C. DAVID — Co. B, Box B-3, DLIWC, Presidio of Monterey, Calif. 93940. Right after graduation Dave joined the army and did his basic training at Fort Dix, N. J. He is now studying Russian at the Defense Language Institute in Monterey under army auspices. According to Dave, "DLI is a fine school."

BUEHLER, Mr. and Mrs. JOHN H. (LAURIE J. OLIVER) — 1210-G Morreene Rd., Durham, N. C. 27005. John and Laurie were married on June 8, 1963. John worked all summer as a lab technician at Duke Hospital and Laurie started a program in the summer session at Duke U. which will lead eventually to an M.A. in English Lit. This winter John is enrolled in the Duke U. School of Medicine and Laurie is teaching English and Speech in a Durham High School.

BURGESS, JOAN T. — Room 459-A, Vanderbilt Hall, 107 Ave. Louis Pasteur, Boston 15, Mass. Joan is enrolled at the Harvard Medical School and is hard at work studying with the hope of obtaining an M.D. in 1967.

BURROWS, WILLIAM M. JR. — 34 S. Williard St., Burlington, Vt. Bill worked all summer for the Hood Milk Co. and hitchhiked around New England and to New York City visiting Oberlin friends. He is an enthusiastic admirer of Vermont — "This certainly is God's country . . . on beautiful Lake Champlain, and in any other direction we are surrounded by the majestic Green Mountains of Vermont. An ideal paradox of rural city and cultural outpost. Everyone's welcome!" Besides admiring the scenery, Bill is studying medicine at the U. of Vermont.

BUTT, EDGAR B. — Hotel Paris, West End Ave. at 97th St., New York, N. Y. 10025. Edgar completed his degree with study at the Oberlin Math Institute in the summer. On September 28 he and his wife, Helen, started Peace Corps training at Columbia University Teachers College. If they complete their training successfully, they expect to be in Nigeria in January.

CAMPBELL, FLETCHER E. — 1627 Massachusetts Ave., Cambridge, Mass. 02138. Fletcher spent the summer as a Recreation Assistant for the Presbyterian Church of Wilmington, Del. He is now at the Harvard Law School hoping to get his LL.B. in June, 1966.

CARGO, DAVID P. — c/o Fred Chaffee, 1415 East Speedway, Tucson, Arizona 85719. On June 8, 1963, David and Katherine Largent '62 were married in Richmond, Va. Kathy is a lieutenant in the Air Force. David has a National Science Foundation grant for study in mathematics at the University of Arizona.

CARROLL, MARIANNE — Apt. 5C, 110 W. 69th, New York, N. Y. 10023. It sounds as if Marianne has one of the more interesting jobs. She is a ground hostess at Idlewild Airport for Pan American Airways. She is now studying Spanish which she thinks is a must on her job and is doing part-time guide work for Hemisphere International Relations Enterprise. Marianne and STEPHANIE PERKINS are sharing an apartment.

CARTWRIGHT, BLISS C. — 619 Tower C, 3955 Forbes Ave., Pittsburgh, Pa. 15213. A whole summer spent traveling in Japan, Hong Kong and India sounds like a dream trip but that is just what Bliss had. He traveled for World University Service. "Probably the best part of the summer was the opportunity to spend a month in a small village in Mysore, India. We built about 1½ miles of roads and drainage ditches and studied economic and social conditions in rural India. I traveled through Southern India with BYRON MOOK (IAC Rep) and visited the Shansi project in Madurai." He is now back at the study grind. He is a grad assistant and is studying for his Ph.D. in Philosophy at the U. of Pittsburgh.

CASTRODALE, ELWOOD — 6312 Wolf Rd., LaGrange, Ill. Elwood's report was brief and to the point. "Waiting for army induction — classification."

CHAMBERLAIN, RICHARD DENNIS — 666 Parker Ave., Detroit, Mich. Dennis attended Western Reserve during the summer to complete his degree. In October he started as a sales trainee for the Scott Paper Co. in the Detroit area.

CHISTIE, Mrs. JAMES (BETTIE LEMMER CHRISTIE) — 360 Edgemeer Place, Oberlin, Ohio. Bettie is just being a homemaker. However, we understand she and her husband took a trip to Europe and are still there.

CLARK, GEORGIA — 1105 First Avenue, New York, N. Y. Georgia is quite busy these days. She is in the publishing business. She is assistant manager in the firm which publishes American Hairdresser and is taking an advertising and selling course given by the New York Advertisement Club.

CLEAVER, DAVID S. — 908 West Nevada St., Urbana, Ill. David is an assistant in research in the Economics Dept. at the U. of Illinois. Besides studying for his M.S. he will do economic research under one professor and advise undergraduate Honors students.

CONIAM, CARL JAY — Box 469, Oberlin Rd., Oberlin, Ohio. Jay worked at the Elyria Country Club as a life guard during the summer. He is teaching geometry and algebra II in the Berea High School.

CONNELL, ELIZABETH LEE — 4219 Pine Street, Philadelphia, Pa. 19104 (as of 1962). Elizabeth has a teaching fellowship in German at the U. of Pennsylvania. Under the terms of the fellowship she is required to teach six hours per week. See Conservatory of Music.

COOK, WENDY JANE — 150 N. Country Club Rd., Decatur, Ill. "Am doing volunteer work with the Family Service Org. in Decatur. In December I go into casework with the Cook County Dept. of Public Aid in Chicago. I will share an apartment with Peggy Sigler '62 who teaches in Chicago."

COPLEY, SUSAN F. — 4635 SE 28th Ave., Portland 2, Oregon. Susan is in the M.A.T. program in history at Reed College. "I can recommend the program here to anyone who is really interested in teaching and doesn't mind working hard at both teaching and going to school."

COULBORN, KATHLEEN M. L. — c/o Goldberg, 104 Suffolk St., Apt. 20, New York 2, N. Y. Kathy started working last summer in the Manhattan General Hospital as a group worker with drug addicts. She finds the work exhausting but very rewarding and still thinks life in New York City is fascinating.

CROSBY, EILEEN — 113 Dryden Road, Ithaca, N. Y. Eileen studied this past summer at the U. of Vermont and loved the mountains and Lake Champlain. She now has a teaching fellowship in physical chemistry at Cornell University. According to Eileen, "Cornell retains many of Oberlin's positive points and has some of its own."

CULP, Mr. and Mrs. LARRY H. (CLAIRE LANGSTON) — Apt. 502, 931 Clinton St., Philadelphia, Pa. 19107. Claire and Larry were married on June 22 in Grosse Pointe, Mich. JOHN BUEHLER, JOHN PEYTON and CAROL GEISLER were their attendants. Both Claire and Larry are attending Jefferson Medical College in Philadelphia.

CUMMINGS, LAIRD — 5806 5th Avenue, Apt. 43, Pittsburgh, Pa. 15232. Laird and Marilyn '64 worked at the Nimrod Club for part of the summer. Laird has a Woodrow Wilson Fellowship and is studying philosophy at the U. of Pittsburgh.

CUPERY, STANLEY GENE — 933 West Johnson, Madison, Wisconsin. Stan completed the work for his degree at the summer session at the U. of Wisconsin. He is still there but enrolled in the Medical School now. He reports his "tank partners" in gross anatomy are BOB and JEAN HOUSE.

CURRY, PHIL — 201 N. Goodwin, Urbana, Ill. The class of 1963 seems to have quite a large contingent at the U. of Illinois. Phil, who finished the work for his degree in February, '63, is there working for his M.A. in Labor and Industrial Relations. After leaving Oberlin last February, Phil studied photography at the U. of Indiana with Henry Holmes Smith. During the summer he contemplated the scenery around San Francisco.

DAKIN, KAREN — 1907 Gold, S.E., Apt. 7, Albuquerque, N. M. Karen says New Mexico is a different land, very pleasant and with a wonderful climate. She is studying for her M.A. in Spanish and has a graduate assistantship which entails drilling beginning Spanish students for 6 hours a week.

DARBY, SUSAN — 27 Wendell St., Cambridge 38, Mass. Sue was job-hunting from the middle of June until the first week of September. She has a never-the-dull-moment job at the Cambridge Public Library. "It has aspects of teaching, research, public relations — a wonderful variety! There are Oberlin people all over this place . . . I've discovered eight on Wendell Street alone."

DAVENPORT, SUZANNE — 7 Mellon Street, Cambridge 38, Mass. Sue says she and JILL HENNEMAN covered Europe last summer by scooter, thumb and train. Sue is a secretary in the office of New England Education Data Systems and attends Boston U. at night to take two courses in history.

DAVIS, MEREDITH — Nicolas de Pierola 179, San Isidro, Lima, Peru. Meredy writes: "My dad was transferred to Peru and I decided to join my parents. There is a possibility that I can teach history and English in the American school here the next school year (April). We took a ship down which took 35 days and made about 16 stops in Latin America. It was very interesting and quite exciting! Peru is wonderful — full of culture, history and wonderful people! My best to all."

DAVIS, MRS. SARA LAMBERT — 285 N. Professor Street, Oberlin, Ohio (as of 1951). Sara is employed by Western Automatic in Elyria, Ohio.

DECHERT, JANET M. — Apt. 1A, 900 West End Ave., New York 25, N. Y. At present Janet is specializing in math and science library work at the Columbia School of Library Science. Last summer she worked in the box office for the G & S players on Cape Cod.

DIBBLE, JUDITH LOUISE — 19 Pine-Brook Drive, Larchmont, New York. Here is another future librarian who is studying at the Columbia School of Library Science.

DILL, DAVID D. — 124 Elm Street, Oberlin, Ohio. David started the summer as a lifeguard in his hometown of Garden City, Long Island, N. Y., but on July 1 he started work as an Admissions Counselor at Oberlin College so he is still stuck in Oberlin.

DILLARD, GWENDOLYN — c/o Peace Corps, American Embassy, Conakry, Guinea, Africa. Gwen knows she will be teaching English but when she left the states she did not know what grades she would be teaching.

DIX, DAVID E. — Tallakulam P. O., Madurai 2, South India. How's that for a melodious sounding address? David, the Oberlin Shansi Rep, is teaching English in the American College at Madurai. Since he is so far from home why not send him a letter now and then?

DOCKHORN, ROBERT B. — 319 No. Butler St., Madison, Wisconsin 53700. Bob is working on an M.A. in history at the U. of Wisconsin.

DODSON, BEVERLY ANN — 911 Clymer Pl., Madison, Wisc. Bev is doing grad study in sociology at the U. of Wisconsin. She has a research assistantship and is working with data gathered by Joe Elder '51 on a recent trip to India. ENE HARM is Bev's roommate. They feel right at home as they say Madison is filled with Oberlin people.

DREBY, EDWIN C., IV — Barlow School, Amenia, New York. Ed is teaching 11th grade American History, is Director of Work Projects, and assistant in music department at Barlow which is a private school.

DUFF, Mrs. JOHN (KATHERINE REYNOLDS DUFF) — 132 N. Main, Oberlin, Ohio. Katherine is holding down two jobs this year, she is a housewife and a teacher. She commutes to Elyria to teach the sixth grade.

DUGGER, Mrs. EDWIN E. (KATHRYN L. HAKE) — 25 Chestnut Street, Princeton, N. J. (as of 1962). Kathryn left Oberlin in February of 1963. She and Edwin Dugger '62 were married Feb. 2, 1963. As far as we know they are living in Princeton where Edwin is doing graduate work.

DUNN, CAROL — 7 Chauncy St., Apt. 3, Cambridge, Mass. 02138. Immediately after graduation, Carol enrolled in the Harvard M.A.T. program in social studies. It is an internship program and Carol is teaching full time this first semester at the Hanscom School in Lincoln, Mass. Her grades are 6th, 7th, and 8th. The second semester of this year she will study full time at Harvard. She is living with LINDA McMANUS. They are eager to welcome Oberlin people at any time.

DUNN, J. MICHAEL — 3800 Fifth Ave., Pittsburgh 13, Pa. Mike is another of the Woodrow Wilson Fellowship recipients. He is using his for grad study this year at the U. of Pittsburgh. Next year he will continue his work for his Ph.D. with financing by an Andrew Mellon Fellowship which will continue until 1966 when he expects to receive his degree.

DYSON, MARTHA — 4306 4th Ave., N.E., Seattle 5, Wash. Marty sends a fascinating report: "I find about 30 grad students in the zoology department. They tend to stay on and on; I'll be lucky to get an M.S. in 3 years, and some have been here for 5 on a Ph.D. There are these things called comprehensive exams — 5 topics, based quite rigidly on this school's advanced undergraduate courses. Ecology is one of the stronger departments.

"But Seattle! we're flanked by Mount Rainier on one side, the Olympics on one side, and the ocean on the other. Further information on U. W. zoology or Seattle available on request. Visitors welcome!"

ECKERT, DOROTHY A. — 216 Leonia Ave., Leonia, N. J. 07605. Penny is commuting to New York every day to the Rockefeller Institute where she is a bi-lingual secretary and does some lab work in a Bio-chem laboratory.

EGUCHI, MITSURU — 3823 Cathedral Ave., N.W., Washington, D. C. Mitsuru is now employed in the Economic Section of the Embassy of Japan in Washington, D. C.

EISENSTEIN, Mrs. JAMES (VIRGINIA B. WOODCOCK) — 118 Sheldon Terrace, New Haven, Conn. Virginia and Jim Eisenstein '62 were married on Sept. 6, 1963. Ginny is employed by the Political Science Research Library.

ELLICKSON, ROBERT C. — 1772 Silliman College, Box 1772 Yale Station, New Haven, Conn. Bob had a varied summer, first he worked with a group of young Puerto Rican boys on the upper West Side of Manhattan, an experience which he recommends to Oberlin students. He attended the Oberlin caucus at the Lincoln Memorial on Aug. 28; then relaxed by going mountain climbing in the Smokies. He has now started his study at the Yale Law School.

ELLIS, WADE, JR. — 311 DeBusk Hall, University of Oregon, Eugene, Oregon 97031. Wade is studying math at the U. of Oregon. He spent last summer studying at Stanford U.

ENDO, TODD—Stanford Village Bldg., 117, Stanford, Calif. Tod studied Japanese and tennis this past summer at the University of Michigan. Seems like an odd combination. He took part in the Washington March on August 28 at which he met many from Oberlin. He also took in the HUAC hearings in Washington.

EVANS, Mr. and Mrs. DAVID A. (SELENA WELLIVER EVANS) — 2180 Medford Road, Apt. 36, Ann Arbor, Mich. 48104. Selena is teaching 8th grade math and science in Garden City, Mich., while Dave is working for his Ph.D. in chemistry at the University of Michigan. He has a teaching fellowship which requires him to teach 12 hours a week.

FARR, RAYE L. — 419 West 118th St., Apt. 41A, New York, N. Y. 10027. Raye went to work immediately after graduation in the Admissions Office of Columbia University. One of the nice things about the job is that she can take courses at Columbia.

FEINSINGER, GREG — 3024 So. Elm, Denver, Colorado 80222. Greg is attending the U. of Colorado School of Medicine. He says he and Yoshiko Shiga are planning a June, 1964, wedding.

FENN, MARGARET MARIANNE — 305 East 56th St., New York 22, N. Y. Margaret is an assistant in the Wildenstein Art Gallery. She and ELIZABETH STEVENS share an apartment.

FERGUSON, CAROL E. — 5524 Ellis Ave. Apt. 2N, Chicago 37, Illinois. Carol was a member of the group of professors and students who participated in World U. Service-YWCA Asian Seminar. BLISS CARTWRIGHT was the other student from Oberlin in the group. Carol is now working for her Masters in psychiatric case work at the U. of Chicago School of Social Service Administration. As part of the course she will do field work at Michael Reese Hospital. Carole writes that on her trip she "met many Oberlinites — from Ambassador Reischauer '31 in Tokyo to Joe Elder '51 in India."

FINCH, ROBERT A. — 4303 East 139th St., Cleveland, Ohio 44105. Bob has a Public Health Service fellowship to study for his Ph.D. in Anatomy at Western Reserve University. He is presently teaching anatomy in the Western Reserve Medical School.

FINKE, DAVID H. — Room 406, Davis Hall, 5757 University Ave., Chicago, Ill. 60637. Dave is going to be able to tell his grandchildren that he was an active participant in the social revolution of the 60's. This past summer he worked as an office volunteer in Atlanta with SNCC, visited voter registration projects in several cities, was jailed in Nashville while picketing a restaurant, picketed construction sites in Brooklyn with CORE, and took part in the Washington March. He is now studying for his B.D. at the Chicago Theological Seminary. He and Nancy Stolberg '64 plan to be married in February of 1964.

FISHER, SUSAN L. — 20 Charles St., Boston 14, Mass. Sue is studying nursing at the Massachusetts General Hospital School of Nursing. She hopes to be an R.N. by June of 1966.

FITCH, MARGARET L. — 737 Basswood Dr., Springfield, Ohio. Margaret studied in elementary education at Wittenberg U. during the summer. On September 4, she started teaching third grade in the New Carlisle-Bethel Local School District. Does she like teaching? "At present teaching is keeping me quite busy; but at the same time I am enjoying it immensely. It is truly a rewarding profession."

FOGELSANGER, DONALD K. — 4901 Seminary Road, Alexandria, Virginia 22311. Don has returned to his former job with Operations Research at Ft. Belvoir, Va.

FORD, Mr. and Mrs. RICHARD I. (KAREN L. COWAN) — 433 Hamilton Place, Ann Arbor, Mich. Karen went to work in the undergraduate library of the University of Michigan as an Assistant Audio-Room Librarian on June 17. Dick had a National Science Fellowship to excavate a prehistoric Indian site in Saginaw, Mich. They took time out to get married on August 17 in Peoria, Ill. Their attendants were Mr. and Mrs. JOHN H. BUEHLER, WILLIAM J. KELLER, DANIEL J. KOSMAN, LARRY H. CULP, ROBERT A. SHELTON, and David A. Ford '67. The guest list reads like an Oberlin alumni list. Karen is continuing in her work at the library and Dick is studying anthropology at the U. of Michigan. He has an assistantship under the terms of which he works 20 hours a week constructing electrical instruments (proton magitometer) for archaeological research.

FRAME, BARBARA B. — Middlebury-Mainz Graduate School Office, Rheinstrasse 42, 65 Mainz, West Germany. Barbara spent the summer at Middle bury College and on August 23 sailed for Germany. She spent September touring West Germany. She is now concentrating on German Literature at the Johannes Gutenberg Universitat on a Dankstipendium from the Federal Republic of Germany government.

FRANKLIN, WOODMAN B. — Poplar Avenue, Stony Brook, New York 11799. Woody is teaching Spanish to grade 7 in a school in Commack, New York.

FREESE, SUSAN — 20 W. Granby Road, Granby, Conn. 06035. Sue started working in July in the Group Pension Actuarial Dept. of the Connecticut General Life Insurance Co. in Hartford, Conn.

FRISHKOFF, BRUCE A. — 49 Morton St., New York, N. Y. 10014. Bruce took education courses at City College this past summer and then decided it would be better to get his Masters. Now he is studying at the New York University. He will be student teaching in Caldwell, N. J., in the spring. He writes: "I'm living down in the Village on Morton St. All — and I mean all — Oberlin people who want to stop in are quite welcome. Don't let them fool you — New York is so-so to visit, but it's the greatest place anywhere to live. N.Y.C. needs teachers desperately."

FRITZMEIER, WILLIAM B. — M. Nurses' Home, McLean Hospital, Belmont, Mass. Bill spent the summer in two work camps in Europe, one in southern France, and one in Poland, under the auspices of the American Friends Service Committee. In the French camp he helped dig trenches for water supply to local farmhouses. In Poland he helped on road construction. Bill "recommends the AFSC programs very highly." He is now working as a psychiatric aide at McLean Hospital where he expects to remain for at least a year before returning to school to study for his Masters in Psych.

GARDNER, JOHN L. — 5214 Centennial Hall, U. of Minnesota, Minneapolis,

Minn. 55455. Jack worked with the Northeastern Illinois Metropolitan Area Planning Commission in Chicago last summer. He prepared an estimate of the population of Chicago and suburbs as of April, 1963, in other words he was updating the 1960 census figures. He now has an assistantship in economics at the U. of Minnesota.

GASKILL, JERRY W. — 9100 Old Georgetown Road, Bethesda, Maryland, 20014. Jerry didn't waste any time getting to work. He started on June 20 as a Digital Computer Programmer trainee and is now Systems Analyst-Programmer, Mathematician at the Radiological Health Laboratory of the Public Health Services in Rockville, Md. He is also going to school part time, taking two mathematics courses at the Institute for the Advancement of Studies in the Sciences.

GEISLER, CAROL E. — Apt. 7, 1339 Geddes St., Ann Arbor, Michigan. We haven't heard from Carole this fall but we know she shared an apartment this summer with KAREN COWAN and Janice Stickney '62. However, we heard from MORRIE SIMKIN that he and Carol are engaged and are planning a June '64 wedding.

GIBBONS, Mrs. JOHN T. (BEVERLY JANE COYNE) — Box 372, Lansing, Kansas. Beverly received her degree in February of 1963, the same month in which she married John Gibbons. Bev. is teaching three classes of junior high English and two classes of sophomore English and is supervising the year book at Lansing High School.

GIBBS, BARBARA M. — 325 South Franklin St., Wilkes-Barre, Pa. Barbara is employed by the Children's Service Center of Wyoming Valley as resident director for emotionally disturbed children.

GITLITZ, DAVID M. — 27 Dana Street, Cambridge, Mass. Dave is studying for his Masters in Spanish Lit. He writes: "Five 1963 grads have set up housekeeping together at 27 Dana Street. They are BILL SCHOPF, SCOTT VAN DOREN, BOB STEIFEL, JIM THORNBLADE and myself. A reunion get-together here at number 27 dragged in more than 2 dozen Oberlin people. Walking across the Yard is almost the same as walking across Tappan Square. Oberlin people do get around. I met four, besides myself, in Caracas this summer. I was working in a tire factory during the day and teaching English at night, the others were in Accion, the YMCA, the Peace Corps and private life."

GLADIEUX, JOHN R. — 10660 Carnegie Ave., Cleveland 6, Ohio. Jack had an interesting summer. First he worked in an experimental surgery lab (dogs only) at Marquette U. Medical School, then took a camping trip in upstate New York and then a brief visit to the home of Larry Gladieux '65 in New York City. He is now at Western Reserve Medical School studying hard. He says, "The Mother to whom I have been assigned in the Western Reserve Family Study program is now 35 weeks pregnant. Therefore I am currently on 24 hour call from delivery room (student must be with the mother throughout labor and delivery), anxiously awaiting arrival of new addition to 'my family'."

GOLDBERG, VICTOR P. — 86 Wall St., Apt. 3, New Haven, Conn. Vic travelled last summer with J. OTIS SMITH, visiting Oberlin people in the northeast and midwest. He is now at Yale on a Bernhard-Cummins fellowship to study for a Ph.D. in economics.

GOLDSTEIN, PAUL B. — Churchill College, Cambridge, England. Paul completed his degree by studying at the City College of New York this past summer. He is now doing graduate work in math and psych on a Fulbright grant in Cambridge University.

GORDON, ALAN C. — 4709 Winton Rd., Cincinnati 32, Ohio. Alan went to summer school at the University of Cincinnati to complete his A.B. degree. He is employed as an Executive trainee (operational research) by the Federated Department Stores and is stationed in Cincinnati now.

GORDON, Mrs. P. DONALD (MARION ROSE GORDON) — 70 North Park St., Oberlin, Ohio. Marion started the summer working for the Oberlin Finishing Co. but on August 16 she started as a caseworker for the Lorain County Child Welfare Agency.

GOULD, WINSTON — 15903 Arcade Ave., Cleveland 10, Ohio. Winnie and Diana (Diana Wertz Gould '64) and their son Eric found themselves suddenly switched from a Saga appointment in Danville, Ky., to Western Reserve in Cleveland. Winnie writes: "I've gotten used to my 1½ year old dining hall of 500 girls in Mather College."

GOUREVITCH, PETER A. — 5 Wendell St., Apt. 7, Cambridge 38, Mass. Peter took part in the State Dept. Intern Program and enjoyed it. He found it very profitable and will be glad to answer questions about it. He is rooming with Gary Schwartz '62 who is in his second year at Harvard Law School. Peter is working for a Ph.D. in Government on a Harvard University Fellowship.

GREEN, J. BONNIE — 21 North Street, Binghamton, New York. Bonnie writes: "I am working with the Junior High School Project at Cornell U. and am presently fulfilling my internship semester at a J.H.S. in Binghamton, N. Y. The program is a very compact one year but the subject matter is alive and interesting. Interning is an extremely worthwhile experience. I have my own classes and am considered a full-fledged teacher. I enjoy working with the kids — they are at a complex age but are very interesting and often challenge you in the classroom. As you might have guessed by now, I would highly recommend this program to anyone interested in junior high school kids."

GREEN, KATHERYN ANNE — Wyeth 111, 1595 Mass. Ave., Cambridge 38, Mass. Kay worked last summer in the I.B.M. Astronomy Laboratory in New York City. She is now enrolled in the Harvard M.A.T. program. She writes: "The Harvard Community is wonderful. The MAT Program is especially exciting. The education professors are challenging and doing a lot of creative work on new programs for secondary education."

GREENMAN, DARLENE KAY — 709 Lincoln, Bay City, Mich. Deke completed 18 hours of work toward her M.A.T. at Mich. State U. during the summer. She is now externing at Bay Central High School. Her big news is the announcement of her forthcoming wedding on Jan. 25, 1964, to Cpl. Cornelius Wagenwoord of the U.S. M.C.

GRIFFITH, ROBERTA GAIL — 113 Dryden Road, Ithaca, New York 14850. Gail began a junior high program at Cornell this summer and is now teaching full-time at Geneva Junior High School in Geneva, New York. She and BONNIE GREEN shared an apartment during the summer. Gail announces: "Jim Lueck and I will be married February 1, 1964. He's a senior at Cornell, majoring in bio-chemistry (so for the next five years I teach while he studies!) and a native Rochesterian like myself."

GROMMET, GLENN C. — 224 W. Clinton Ave., State College, Pa. Glenn is studying for his M.S. in Physical Education at Pennsylvania State University. He teaches in the Men's Required P. E. Program as he is a graduate assistant.

GUEST, AVERY MASON — 62B Arizona Hall, 508 W. 114th St., New York 15, N. Y. Pete finished his degree at the Summer Honors College in Oberlin and is now enrolled at Columbia Graduate School of Journalism carrying on with his major interest.

HAGENBUCH, MARY ANN — 2212 Ward St., Apt. B, Berkeley, Calif. Mary Ann did clerical work all summer in her hometown of Dayton, Ohio. She is studying for an A.M. in History at the U. of California at Berkeley.

HARDIN, RONALD H. — 6 N. Beachcroft Rd., Short Hills, N. J. Ron says he walked in to the Bell Telephone Laboratories in Whippany, New Jersey, one day and got a job. "I go to 'school' two days a week at Bell to learn programming techniques and logic organization of digital computers. This is the first session of what Bell calls its 'PDT' program, a three year course, as it is now planned, leading to an M.A. in something or other, and designed for physically oriented math majors. The rest of my time is spent programming for the Nike-Zeus guided missle system."

HARM, ENE KAJA — 911 Clymer Place, Madison, Wisconsin. Ene had an uninspiring job as typist at Princeton U. last summer. Now she is studying English Literature at the U. of Wisconsin. She writes that: "BEV DODSON (her room mate) and I both like this town — there's room to breathe! And we have a good time meeting the rest of the Oberlin community which seems to be expanding daily."

HARRIS, RUTHANN E. — van Weede van Dijkveldstraat 36, Den Haag, Nederland. While spending a month with friends in the Netherlands this summer, Ruthann decided to spend a year abroad just for the experience. So she found herself a job. She types letters and technical reports in English for Bataafse Internationale Petroleum. She hopes this year abroad will help crystallize her future plans.

HAYES, CHRISTOPHER F. — 319 Mountain Ave., Piedmont 11, Calif. Chris is job hunting. If you know of a writing job let him know. He says: "I can't say that I miss Oberlin, but I certainly do miss the people."

HENNEMAN, M. JILL — 4016 Spruce Street, Philadelphia 4, Pa. Jill travelled around Europe with SUE DAVENPORT last summer. She is now enjoying Philadelphia and studying psychology at the U. of Pennsylvania where she has an assistantship.

HICKMAN, JAMES C. — Dept. of Biology, University of Oregon, Eugene, Ore. Jim was up at Woods Hole all summer assisting Dr. George Scott. He now has a teaching assistantship in Ecology and General Biology at the U. of Oregon. He is studying for a Ph.D. in biology.

HIXON, ANN C. — 210 Larrimore Lane, Philadelphia, Pa. 19118. Ann worked as an office girl for the Leeds and Northrup Co.'s accounting department during the past summer. She is now studying for her M.S. in Biology at the U. of Pennsylvania.

HOCA, WILLIAM M. — 13215 Forestdale, Garfield Heights 25, Ohio. Bill worked for the Ford Motor Co. in Lorain, Ohio, from June until August and then took a three week trip through Canada. He is teaching 8th and 9th grade math in the Garfield Heights Public School System.

HOFFMAN, RONALD T. — 144 Devonshire Road, Buffalo 23, N. Y. Please forward. Ron has not returned his occupational form but we heard that he was thinking of going into the military after graduation and he now may be a member of the Air Force National Guard.

HOLDEN, JONATHAN — 1140 Lexington Ave., Apt. 6, New York, N. Y. Jon is employed by the Cambridge Book Co. in Bronxville, N. Y.

HOLLISTER, DAVID W. — Duke Hospital, Box 2779, Durham, North Carolina. David spent the summer traveling in a big way — he covered 15 countries in Europe. He is now studying medicine at the Duke U. Medical School.

HOLMES, RUSSELL E. — 312 N. Mills St., Madison, Wisconsin 53705. Russ had a wonderful summer — "I divided the summer in Europe between study and travel. Traveled first for six weeks in England, France, Italy, Greece, and Yugoslavia; then studied for 4 weeks in language course at the U. of Munchen; then a week in Berlin and north Germany. Met Lenora Maltz '62 on a beach on the Aegean Sea; met George Langeler in Salzburg (of course everyone meets Mr. Langeler in Europe)." Russ is now in an M.S. program at the U. of Wisconsin and plans to enter medical school in the fall of 1964.

HONNOLD, CAROL L. — 3444 Congress Parkway, Chicago, Illinois 60624. Carol's temporary summer job was in a Washington Human Rights Project. Now she is an interne in the Youth Opportunities Program of the American Friends Service Committee.

HOUGHTON, ROBERT W. — 509 Erie Street, S.E., Minneapolis, Minn. 55414. Bob has a teaching assistantship at the U. of Minnesota where he is studying for his M.S. in physics. He writes about his summer as a Teaching Fellow at Mt. Hermon School: "The summer was exciting, busy, and rewarding! The two primary aims of the program are to study and experience the business of education and to work and live closely with teenagers. The latter takes some adjustment but has its rewards. One enjoys the position of a full faculty member. I urge anyone interested to apply but there is stiff competition in all fields but science."

HOUSE, Mr. and Mrs. ROBERT H. (JEAN E. JOHNSON) — 207 N. Mills St., Madison, Wisconsin 53715. Bob and Jean were married on June 15, 1963, in Greendale, Wisconsin. HULL, ANGUS C. — Apt. 1, 914 South State Street, Ann Arbor, Michigan. Angus attended the U. of Michigan summer session and completed the requirements for his degree. He is now enrolled for graduate work in zoology at the U. of Michigan.

HUSTON, MICHAEL B. — Men's Grad Center, Duke U., Durham, N. C. 27706. Mike traveled in Europe last summer but didn't write us a word about it. He is studying Law at Duke University.

HUTCHISON, SARAH J. — 805 Dempster, Evanston, Illinois. Sally has a fellowship to study for her M.A. in mathematics at Northwestern U. She puts in 8 hours per week assisting students in first year math classes.

HUTTIG, ELISABETH — c/o Maier, Battonnstrasse 21-1, Frankfort/M., Germany. Elisabeth studied all summer to complete her degree and also was organist for the Plymouth Congregational Church of Miami, Florida. Course started for her in the Staatliche Hochschule fuer Musik on October 10. She writes: "I would strongly advise prospective Fulbright candidates — especially in organ — to consider coming here. The only disappointing thing — especially after being at Oberlin — is a distinct lack of organ practice facilities. There are three organs at the Hochschule for well over 30 students!"

JANOSKO, MARIANN — 7071 Big Creek Parkway, Cleveland 30, Ohio. Mariann is teaching English in a high school in Lorain, Ohio. We think she is commuting from Cleveland to Lorain but wonder if she will continue this after the snows start.

JANSON, LOUIS H. — 16 Dickinson St., Princeton, N. J. Louis was language lab supervisor for the Peace Corps training group at Oberlin College all last summer. He now has a university fellowship to study for his Ph.D. in French at Princeton U. He has an urgent message for Oberlinians: "For all those who complained about Oberlin formality: If you think eating dinner in a suit and tie was a nuisance, you should have to do it in a baccalaureate gown."

JANSSON, BRUCE S. — Star Route, Mulberry Fields, Leonardtown, Md. Please forward. Bruce spent the summer completing his degree at the U. of Chicago where he saw MIKE BIBER frequently.

JOHNSON, J. DOUGLAS — 119 W. Jackson Rd., Webster Groves, Mo. 63119. Doug is studying to be a dentist at Washington University School of Dentistry in St. Louis, Mo.

JONES, JAMES MCC. — 517 West 12th St., Elyria, Ohio. Jim toured Europe for one month with JOHN PERERAZICH and JERRY SCRIPTURE and then hitchhiked around Europe by himself. He now has a most interesting job working with Emer. Prof. Louis D. Hartson. Prof. Hartson is doing research for the Franklin Institute. They work at the F.A.A. in Oberlin as they are engaged in constructing tests for selecting trainees to become spotters at the F.A.A.

JOSEPH, MRS. CHARLES W. (ANN SWERTFEGER) as of '62 — Apt. 101, 4704 Kenmore Ave., Alexandria, Va. Ann is now teaching French III, and Spanish II in the Fairfax County School.

JOSLYN, BARBARA — Box 641, Center, Colorado 81125. Barb spent the summer as a camp counselor in Wild Rose, Wisconsin. She is now teaching physical education to grades 7 through 12 in Center, Colorado. "I'm enjoying my job, the town, the people, and the country. Center is the biggest valley in the U. S. — 40 by 75 miles — the San Luis Valley — every direction I look there are mountains."

KAY, BONNIE J. — Odorgonno Secondary School, Box 792, Accra, Ghana, Africa. From June 28 to August 24, 1963, Bonnie was in training at the U. of California at Berkeley, California. She is teaching chemistry to the 1st through 5th forms at Adorgonno Secondary School. She is another of our Peace Corps Volunteers.

KELLER, WILLIAM J. — Rm. 217, Berry Hall, Athens, Ohio. Bill worked for the Alma Recreation Dept. of Alma, Michigan, as a lifeguard and swimming teacher all summer. He has an assistantship at Ohio University in Athens and his duties consist of teaching three physical education classes and assisting with the coaching of cross country and track. He is studying for a M.S. in Physical Education.

KELSEY, JEAN C. — 611 East 12th St., New York, N. Y. 10009. Jean received her degree in February of 1963 and since April has been a social investigator for the New York City Dept. of Welfare.

KENNEY, LAWRENCE D. — 13 Borinquen St., Santa Rita, San Juan, Puerto Rico, 00928. Dave is teaching English to the 10th and 12th grades in the District of Loiza in Puerto Rico. He writes: "I am taking up where Nancy Decker '62 left off."

KIER, RAYMOND E. — 53 Washington Sq. South, New York, N. Y. 10012. Ray worked as a truck driver all summer in Vernal, Utah. He has a research assistantship at New York University where he is working on his M.B.A. As part of his assistantship he will be working on the Journal of Finance.

KILMER, Mr. and Mrs. JEFFREY M. (CAROL DAVENPORT) — 1101 Columbia Ave., Chicago 26, Ill. Jeff started working on July 1 for IBM. He and Carol were married on October 6 in Caldwell, Idaho. Carol is working as an assistant in the public relations department of Marshall Field and Company.

KIMMEL, MRS. LAWRENCE W. (HELEN COOPER RANDALL) — see LAWRENCE KIMMEL under Mus.B.

KLEIN, DAVID J. — 111 Linden Street, Malverne, L.I., New York. Please forward. We know David completed his degree requirements this summer. We have heard a rumour that he has gone in to grad study in psychology. Does any one know where?

KLEPACZ, GEORGE JR. — 494 27th Ave., San Francisco, Calif. 84121. George didn't waste any time getting to work. He started working on June 19. He is an auditor for a firm in San Francisco.

KOLDEN, ROLF J. — Bei Lampmahn, 1 Berlin 41, Schlo 13 Str. 67, Germany. Rolf was around Oberlin all summer, studying German and delivering mail to the college offices. He is now studying German Literature at the Free University in West Berlin on a Fulbright.

KOPP, ROBERT E. — Ames Hall 114, Cambridge, Mass. 02138. Bob worked as a student aid in the Agency for International Development in Washington, D. C., all summer. Now he is studying law at Harvard and writes: "Harvard Law School is much like Oberlin, but with the following differences: (1) There is free beer at dorm council elections; (2) The school cannot accommodate all the students who wish to live on campus; (3) The social regulations are generally considered satisfactory; (4) Living isn't very gracious; (5) Nearly everybody watches the world Series. Once you are standing inside the library here, however, all these differences melt into insignificance."

KOSMAN, DANIEL J. — 1345 E. Madison Pk., Chicago, Illinois, 60615. Dan spent the summer at Northwestern in the Dept. of Bio-chemistry. He writes that JOEL "MOLE" MILLIKAN is living at the Kosman house this year. Dan is doing grad work in organic chemistry now at the University of Chicago.

KRAMER, GALE R. — 777 Irving Avenue, Syracuse, N. Y. 13210. Gale is studying at the Syracuse University School of Music preparatory to grad study in organ. He also has a part time job as organist and choirmaster at Evangelical Lutheran Church in Syracuse. All last summer Gale worked as a packer in his father's greenhouse. He writes that Syracuse is full of Oberlin faces.

KUMPE, DAVID A. — Vanderbilt Hall, Rm. 235, 107 Ave. Louis Pasteur, Harvard Medical School, Boston 15, Mass. His address tells that David is studying medicine. As for his summer, let David speak for himself. "I spent the first half of the summer working on a tramp freighter 'Altair' in Spanish Honduras, hauling fresh shrimp, coconuts, etc., to the States and various American items back to Honduras. I had to be back in Kentucky by Aug. 5 to start preparing for med school. I left too soon to get in on the fun — the Altair was attacked by unidentified jet fighters a few miles off the coast of Cuba about September 14 and they had a revolution in Honduras in October. Naturally, these were 'Experiences in International Living' I was sorry to have missed out on. I did manage to run into a shark while skindiving, however, and am happy to report I still own two arms, two legs, and ten fingers. I came back completely rested and ready for medical school. Incidentally, Harvard has been tremendous so far, even more than I expected."

LANE, EMILY RUTH — 6 Hall Rd., Flat 52, St. Johns Wood, London NW 8, England. Emily stayed on campus through the summer and completed a private reading course to complete her degree requirements. We understand she is spending some time with her family in England now.

LARSEN, PETER — 3405 Yale Station, New Haven, Conn. 06530. Pete spent the summer with the G&S players in Falmouth, Mass. He is now studying playwriting at Yale School of Drama, disregarding Edward Albee's opinion that play writing can not be taught. His impressions of Yale? a disturbing paucity of young women.

LEARY, NANCY J. — 103 East 192nd St., Euclid, Ohio 44119. Nancy is teaching the sixth grade for the Euclid Board of Education.

LEIGHNINGER, ROBERT D. — 754 Ostrom Ave., Syracuse 10, N. Y. Bob is administrative assistant to Dr. Roy Price, Head of the D.S.S. program at Maxwell School of Citizenship, Syracuse U. LOESCH, ROBERT K. — 618 Second Ave., West Haven, Conn. On June 15, 1963, in the First Congregational Church of West Haven, Conn. Bob and Bonnie Frazier '62 were married. His father, Rev. Russell T. Loesch '32 and her father, Rev. Donald Frazier '33 both performed the wedding ceremony. Her mother is Mrs. Donald Frazier who was Elizabeth Hart '36. It was truly an all Oberlin wedding. Attendants were Eloise Wagner '62, Mary Thurston '66, Carolyn Stoakes '62, WILLIAM LOESCH, VICTOR MUSKIN, William Frazier '65. Among the guests were DOUGLAS SPELMAN, Barbara J. Chong '62 who was also the organist, Peggy Harper '61, and Elizabeth Frazier '47. Their wedding trip was to Orient Point, Long Island, N. Y. Bonnie is a music teacher in the West Haven School System and Bob is a theological student in the Yale Divinity School. He worked in the summer as full time pastor of a racially integrated Congregational Church in W. Haven and now has a field work assignment in the First Church Congregational Fairfield, Conn.

LOESCH, WILLIAM R. — 215 Herrick Rd., Andover-Newton Theological School, Newton Centre, Mass. Bill spent the summer working with a Migrant Ministry Team for the National Council of Churches. About this he writes: "This was the best summer experience I ever had, even met my future wife (at least so we are planning)." Bill is studying theology at Andover-Newton Theological School and is also a part time religious education assistant in the First Congregational Church of Winchester, Mass.

LOUD, JULIE — 5802B Plantagenet, Montreal 26, (P.Q.) Canada. Julie spent the summer south of the border in the Oberlin-in-Mexico program and is now north of the border working as an assistant photographer for the Institut de Medecine et de Chiurgie Experimentales in Montreal. She will enter Harvard in February of 1964 to begin studying for her M.A.T. in French.

McCLELLAND, G. BRUCE — 4313 N. Stowell, Milwaukee, Wisconsin 53211. Bruce was an assistant swimming instructor at the Town Club in Milwaukee all summer. He is attending Marquette U. School of Medicine. About this he writes: "There is plenty of studying to do in Medical School, but so far the academic pressure has not matched that at Oberlin. The hardest part about school so far is an 8:00 to 5:00 day five days a week."

McCLINTOCK, JEANNE C. — 66 Wendell St., Cambridge 38, Mass. Here is another one of the Wendell Street contingent. Jeanne will finish her M.A.T. in French at Harvard in June, 1964.

MacDONALD, SANDRA LOUISE — Graduate Residence Center, Vos Hall, Bloomington, Ind. 47406. Sandra is doing grad study in French at the Indiana University.

MacDOUGALL, TERRY E. — c/o Inter-Board House, 4 of 12 Shiba Koen, Minato-ku, Tokyo, Japan. Terry has well laid plans for years ahead. "I will be in Tokyo until March, 1964. During this time I will be devoting most of my time to the study of Japanese in Naganuma Language School. Naganuma is Japan's main language school. In April, 1964, I will begin teaching in the boys' high school of Doshisha U. in Kyoto, Japan. I will teach in this school until July, 1965. Then I anticipate doing grad work when I return to the United States."

McGRATH, DIANE — 426 East 10th St., Bloomington, Ind. 47403. Diane is really working away this year. She is studying cello at Indiana U., working part time as a waitress and also has a job in a bookstore. In January, 1964, she starts graduate school at Purdue to work for her M.S. in psychology.

MacLAREN, Mrs. MALCOM (LINDA MINER) — 877 Lancaster Ave., Syracuse, N. Y. Linda was married on June 22, 1963, to Malcolm MacLaren (Harvard '59) in Hotchkiss Chapel in Lakeville, Conn. Attendants were LINDA McMANUS, Janet I. Walker '64 and Sheila Moran '64. Linda is a part time secretary in the Classics Dept. of Syracuse U. and her husband is a grad student there.

McMANUS, LINDA — 7 Chauncy St., Cambridge, Mass. 02138. Linda started in the intern program in elementary education at Harvard in June. "CAROL DUNN and I are teaching this semester and looking forward to being taught next. Teaching is hard work. No question about it. Come visit whenever you're in the area."

McREYNOLDS, CHRISTINE E. — Box 1555 University Park, Las Cruces, N. M. Chris is living the strenuous life now as she is in training for the Peace Corps at New Mexico State University. She expects (if she comes through the training period) to be assigned to a community development project in Guatemala. The project is to begin about January, 1964.

MADDEN, BARBARA — 800 McKinley, Ann Arbor, Mich. 48104. Barbara was a salesgirl in McKelvey's in Youngstown all summer. Now she is selling sportswear in Ann Arbor. Actually she is filling in time until her marriage on December 22, 1963, to Donald Sanning '62. They are going to have an open church wedding in Niles, Ohio.

MAGDOFF, FRED R. — 522 Stewart Ave., Ithaca, New York. Fred has an assistantship in the Department of Agronomy at Cornell University. He is doing research and studying for an M.S. in agronomy.

MARANTZ, ROBERT — 1009 East 57th St., Chicago, Ill. Bob is studying medicine at the University of Chicago Medical School.

MARIEN, ROSE — 16 Chestnut Street, Potsdam, N. Y. Rose spent the summer in Nassau. She is now teaching art to grades kindergarten through sixth grade at two different schools in Potsdam. She writes: "I just love my job! (the italics are hers). It's truly difficult, challenging work, and consequently I get a proportionate amount of satisfaction from doing it well — the kids treat me like Santa Claus and I really believe I'm getting thru to them. At the same time I'm learning a great deal more about art. Montreal is only 2½ hours away and is beautiful, alive and exciting. The country is beautiful up here and when skiing weather starts I'll be quite well occupied." Rose is also taking education courses in the evenings at St. Lawrence U. in Canton, New York.

MARK, EUGENE J. — 431 Vanderbilt Hall, 25 Shattuck St., Boston 15, Mass. Gene earned his degree at Oberlin in three years which means he actually graduated in 1962 but wants to be considered with the class of '63 which he entered with. He is now in his second year at Harvard Medical School and is thinking seriously of specializing in psychiatry.

NEWCOMB, THEODORE M., JR. — 1045 Cedar Bend Drive, Ann Arbor, Michigan. Please forward. We haven't heard from Ted but heard indirectly that he is in training for the Peace Corps.

NOEL, ELLA MARGUERITE — 44 Vick Park B, Rochester 2, New York. See Conservatory of Music.

NORTHROP, JOHN W. — No. 464, International House, 1414 East 59th St., Chicago 37, Ill. John had ten weeks intensive study of French at Georgetown University in Washington, D. C., this past summer. He is studying for his M.A. in International Relations at the U. of Chicago and writes that he has found out one thing since graduation: "The whole country's lousy with Oberlin grads! They're everywhere!" However, we do think that after an Oberlin education he could have phrased that observation more elegantly.

NOVAK, ERNEST — 33 Elgin Street, Rochester, N. Y. 14611. Ernest spent the summer in this vicinity, he was doing chemical analysis for Harshaw Chemical Co. in Elyria, Ohio. He has a teaching assistantship and full tuition scholarship to the U. of Rochester where he is working on his Ph. D. in organic chemistry. He and Nancy Lucille Orr '65 were married during his senior year and are now the proud parents of a very new baby daughter, Carol.

NZELIBE, J. OKECHUKU — 1704 Fourth St., Washington 1, D. C. Joe writes "It is fun to have a change, but depressing to miss friends, many of whom I do not hope to see again. I had a good summer here in Washington, holding three jobs at a time — a student, a cook, and a statistical clerk with the International Monetary Fund. All things worked out very well. I shall be happy to welcome any Oberlin student with a few hours of chatting at any time." Joe is studying for an M.A. in Economics at Howard University. When writing to him, please observe the form he now uses for his name.

OPPENHEIMER, MARY E. — 321 N. Thayer, Ann Arbor, Michigan. Mary spent the summer in Oberlin doing work for Mr. Lanyi. She is doing graduate work in political science at the U. of Michigan.

He now has an assistantship at the University of Oregon which requires him to teach invertebrate zoology while he is studying for his Masters in Biology. Patsy is now studying biology at the U. of Oregon for a B.S. Sandy writes: "We're settled in the west and feel much at home. Patsy is playing piano in a local combo and I'm trying to learn to play the thing — an effort. We dive in the Pacific nearly every week and have been joined lately by JIM HICKMAN who is also doing graduate work in the biology department."

PALOMAKI, JACK F. — 2049 East 115th, Cleveland, Ohio 44106. We had a nice note from Jack. "I traveled through 14 European countries for 9½ weeks this summer by myself. Met DAVE HOLLISTER in a Youth Hostel in Venice; saw JERRY SCRIPTURE at the American Express in Rome; stopped in Salzburg to visit Conservatory students; and made a trip to Vienna where I saw Prof. Kurtz and many of the summer Oberlin German students. It was a wonderful summer during which I met many old friends, made new friends with many foreign students and gained a new insight into the aspects of being an American. Now I am at Western Reserve Medical School with JOHN GLADIEUX, DON MOORE, DALE BARDO and Dave Oliver '62. An rooming with DALE BARDO and really enjoying school."

PARRY, MARION A. — 46 St. Mary's, St. Mary's Terrace, London, W2, England. Marion was a salesgirl at the Chicago International Trade Fair during the summer. She is now in London taking special courses at the London School of Economics and expects to tour the continent after this semester is completed.

PERAZICH, JOHN — 3207 Oliver St., N.W., Washington, D. C. 20015. Another European traveler! "I traveled for three months in Europe with JIMMY JONES and JERRY SCRIPTURE. Presently, I am taking grad work in government and history at George Washington U. where I hope to enter the law school in February of 1964."

PERCY, NORMA — c/o Coblentz, 34 Lisle St., London WC2, England. Norma stayed around New York City most of the summer and saw RAY FARR, and ROSE MARIEN among others. She is doing graduate work in government at the London School of Ecnomics. She expects to be there a couple of years until she receives her M.S. in 1965.

PERKINS, STEPHANIE D. G. — 110 West 69th St., Apt. 5C, New York, N. Y. 10023. Stephanie is a claims adjuster for the Liberty Mutual Insurance Co. She and MARIANNE CARROLL are living together and "welcome all friends in the New York area to drop in and visit."

He is studying for an M.A. in philosophy on a Woodrow Wilson Fellowship at the U. of Pittsburgh. Sue is working for her Masters in Education at the U. of Pittsburgh. She is in the intern teaching program.

PIERI, CAROLYN M. — Box 228, 50 Haven Ave., New York 32, N. Y. Carolyn attended an Occupational Therapy Practicum at Valley Forge General Hospital for three weeks in the early part of the summer and then was an apprentice in professional stock at the Corning Summer Theater for the remainder of the summer. She is studying medicine at Columbia U. College of Physicians and Surgeons and will be glad to answer any questions about medical school in general and more than happy to see any Oberlinians passing through New York.

POSTLETHWAITE, JOAN — 6035 Broadway, New York, N. Y. 10471. Joan finally decided on a job with the New York City Department of Welfare. She is a social investigator. She writes: "It involves phenomenal amounts of work but I'm enjoying it — good co-workers and an interested supervisor certainly help. Also I'm taking one course at Columbia School of Social Work which is extremely relevant to the job. BARBIE ABRAHAM is here and one can't walk around the Columbia area without running into Oberlin people. It's all very 'homey'."

POTTER GARY M. — W-106 University Apartments, Bloomington, Ind. Gary played in the band at Culvermere in Branchville, N. J., during the summer. On September 28 he was married to Phyllis King, a graduate of Ohio University, in the Presbyterian Church in Petersburg, Ohio. Phyllis is working as a medical technologist and Gary is doing graduate work in music at Indiana University.

POTTORF, JEAN K. — 114 McFarlane Hall, 1901 East Iliff, Denver, Colo. 80210. Jean worked at Yellowstone National Park, Wyoming, last summer. "I was location auditor at Fishing Bridge Campers Cabins. Job entailed not only handling quite a bit of money each day, but also doing daily sales reports, compiling statistics and percentages, and maintaining payroll figures. Saw several Oberlin people both working and traveling through Yellowstone." Jean has a resident internship at the University of Denver where she is working for an M.A. in Education with a major in Student Personnel Services. She saw BARB JOSLYN one evening in Denver.

POWELL, DAVID M. — 1012 22nd St., N.W., Washington, D. C. Dave was a caseworker with the Travelers Aid Society of Baltimore, Md., last summer. About this he writes: "My summer job with Travelers Aid was a good experience and I recommend it to anyone interested in trying out his abilities as a caseworker. The variety of problems encountered is tremendous, probably as great as any clinic and greater than most social agencies." Dave is working on his M.A. in clinical psychology at George Washington U.

QUINBY, LINDA — 2 St. John's Rd., Cambridge 39, Mass. Linda was counselor in natural history at the Pleasant Valley Farm Camp in Woodstock, Ill. This camp is operated by the Chicago City Missionary Society. Linda is in the apprentice teacher training program and this semester is teaching at Shady Hill School in Cambridge, Mass.

RAILSBACK, RICHARD CLAYTON — 27 Bank Street, Norwalk, Ohio 44857. Richard worked all summer for the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. He is teaching American Government to the 12th grade in Norwalk and is also the assistant football coach.

READ, THOMAS T. — 254 Prospect Street, New Haven, Conn. Tom studied at Columbia during the summer and now is enrolled at Yale with the hope of obtaining a Ph.D. in Matb by 1966. He has a National Science Foundation Graduate Fellowship.

REED, THEODORE LIBBY — 311 West College, Oberlin, Ohio. Ted has had no respite from study. Immediately after graduation he continued studying here to complete his undergraduate work in sociology. He is now working on an A.M. in sociology. He also does independent research outside the department. He expects the grind to continue until February of 1965.

REID, Mrs. FREDERICK (SUSAN E. BRENNAND) — 2088 Westbury Rd., Apt. 7, Ottawa 5, Ontario, Canada. Susan and Frederick Reid were married June 29, 1963. She is the kindergarten teacher in Queen Elizabeth School in the Ottawa Public School System. She reports: "Loving both married life and school teaching. We are anxiously awaiting the first snow so we can get out on the ski slopes."

REISMAN, BARBARA J. — 772 Orange St., New Haven, Conn. 06511. Barbara studied German at the U. of Minnesota and worked in the Acquisitions Dept. of the U. of Minnesota Library during the summer. She is now doing graduate work in French at Yale University on a Woodrow Wilson Fellowship.

RIEKER, LINDA THERESA — 6361 Linden Ave., No. 5, Long Beach, Calif. Linda is teaching the fifth grade in the Bixby Elementary School at Long Beach and says she will be: "Glad to welcome anyone wandering this way. Anxious to see some Oberlin people."

RIGGS, JOSEPH — 444 Summer Ave., Newark 4, N. J. Joe is attending Fordham U. School of Social Service studying for his M.S.W.

ROBBINS, EDITH — R.R. 7, Valparaiso, Indiana. Edith studied French again this summer. She is teaching French in the high school at Portage, Ind.

ROBERTS, MARGARET H. — Visa Center c/o Robert Bird, 23 Haudin Road, Bangalore 1, India. Margaret sent us this address and the note that she was taking a six weeks course in the Tamil language but didn't tell us what her American Friends Service project was.

ROBINSON, Mrs. STANLEY U. (KATHLEEN H. CRONIN) — 106 East 14th Ave., Columbus, Ohio 43201. Kathleen and Stanley Robinson '62 were married on June 13, 1963. Kathleen is studying for her B.S.Ed. at the Ohio State University College of Education.

ROBINSON, WILLIAM L. — 1331 John Jay Hall, Columbia University, New York, N. Y. Bill is enrolled in the school of Law at Columbia.

ROBISON, LEON R. III — 1803 Valentine, Cleveland, Ohio. Leon is working as lab assistant to Dr. Brown Dobyns at the Cleveland Metropolitan General Hospital.

ROOS, BERNARD ALLEN — 5400 S. Greenwood, Chicago, Ill. Last summer Bernie worked in Engineering and Operations Research at the Port of New York Authority. He is studying medicine at the University of Chicago Medical School this year. If all goes well he will be Dr. Roos in June of 1967.

RUBEN, Mrs. TUNU (ULLE-MAI SINKA) — Kingswood School, Cranbrook, Bloomfield Hills, Mich. Ulle-Mai and Tunu Ruben were married in July. She is teaching French to grades 8 through 11 at Kingswood School.

RUSSELL, Lt. NANCY H. — Class 8-A-3418, Box 572, Medical Field Service School, Fort Sam Houston, Texas. Nancy left Oberlin in February of 1963 and worked in the August, Maine, State Hospital. There she was research assistant, editor, and typist in the compiling of a "Clinical Psychology Training Guide and Handbook" that was being written by Dr. Irving B. Guller, Ph.D., Director of Trainning and Research at the hospital. On Aug. 26 she began the Army Physical Therapy course. "I had five weeks of basic orientation classes here at Fort Sam Houston. After that, anything would have been a welcome relief. But I really am very happy with the program the Army has to offer. We have a terrific group of 18 enthusiastic students, an excellent teaching staff, and the best of facilities. In short, I'm completely satisfied with my choice and would recommend it to anyone considering a physical therapy certificate course. I am a Second Lieutenant."

SALZER, Mrs. CLARENCE M., JR. (DEBORAH BELCHETZ) — 517 East 87th St., New York 28, N. Y. Deborah was married on Sept. 1, 1963, to Clarence Salzer, a stage designer and a painter. Debby is free-lancing. At the present time she is doing art history research on an assignment.

SCHAEUBLE, JOHN L. — 612 Graduate House, Lafayette, Ind. 47907. Jack writes: "After a quick trip to Wisconsin to see BOB HOUSE and JEAN JOHNSON be married on June 15, I began my graduate study at Purdue and was pleasantly surprised to find that a university so large could also be so friendly. Now I am planning my thesis research, which I hope to do this year along with my assistantship research. Purdue has several very excellent professors in its psychology department, and I am enjoying my study here." Jack hopes to have his M.S. in experimental psychology in 1965 and his Ph.D. in 1967.

SCHECHNER, WILLIAM — 390 Riverside Drive, New York, N. Y. Bill is doing graduate work in American History at Columbia U. He reports the unbelievable: "I wear a coat and tie to 30% of my classes, get haircuts, live in an apartment, eat dinner when and where I want . . . so there's hope for all of us — even former reprobates."

SCHMIDT, ROBERT C. — c/o P.O. Box 186, Newton, N. J. 07860. Bob studied Russian at Harvard last summer and then decided to forego grad school at Wisconsin as he had previously planned. He volunteered for the Peace Corps and started his training on October 10. Address mail to him to his home address as he will be leaving for Malaysian Borneo on Dec. 31 and won't know his overseas address for a while.

SCHMIDT-NIELSEN, ASTRID — 2524 Wrightwood Avenue, Durham, N. C. Astrid writes: "I took John (John McHugh graduate of Duke U. '63 to whom she is engaged) to Denmark and Sweden to meet my relatives over there. For a week in August we traveled with my father in Norway, his home country." Now back at home again, Astrid is looking for a position in the Washington, D. C., area.

SCHOENBERG, MARK — 2215 38th St., N.W., Washington, D. C. 20007. Mark is studying medicine at the Medical School of Georgetown University. He sends his regards to all the Plum Creek boys.

SCHOPF, J. WILLIAM — 27 Dana Street, Cambridge 38, Mass. This address is going to be very familiar to readers of this directory. Living with Bill are DAVE GITLITZ, JIM THORNBLADE, SCOTTY VAN DOREN, BOB STIEFEL and one man from Cambridge, England, who must feel outnumbered. Bob spent the summer at Harvard also as a research assistant, continuing his Oberlin Honors Project which he thinks will develop into a Ph.D. problem working with 2 billion year old fossil organisms, the oldest known preserved forms of life known to man. On the Saturday night preceding the opening of Harvard classes the 27 Dana Street gang had a get-together which was attended by some 20 or so members of the class of '63 studying in the Cambridge area.

SCHWALBE, CARL H. — Room 35, Perkins Hall, Oxford and Everett Streets, Cambridge, Mass. 02138. Carl spent a very interesting summer working for Mound Laboratory of the Monsanto Chemical Co. in Miamisburg, Ohio. He writes: "My work concerned the theory of transport properties of gases and therefore dealt mostly with mathematical physics. I learned a great deal and enjoyed what I was doing. So far I am very happy at Harvard. I will probably start research next year therefore I don't know yet what project I'll choose, but it will be physical chemistry. There certainly is a great variety of stimulating research being done here." Carl has a National Science Foundation Graduate Fellowship and an assistantship. He teaches 7 to 10 hours a week for the first semester.

SCOVILL, Mr. and Mrs. CURT (LINDA BALL) — 2 Inman Street, No. 10, Cambridge 39, Mass. Linda and Curt were married on August 17, 1963, in the Second Presbyterian Church of Bloomington, Ill. The groom's parents are Mr. ('38) and Mrs. W. E. Scovill (Virginia Curtis '36). STAN CUPERY was best man. Curt worked last summer as a mail clerk for an educational T.V. station. He said he traveled extensively between Boston and Bloomington, Ill., all summer. Their wedding trip was to Allenspark, Colorado. Curt is studying medicine at Tufts School of Medicine and Linda is job hunting. About this she writes: "A liberal arts education is such a luxury — it would be infinitely more practical if it included just one small course in shorthand and business typing."

SCRIPTURE, JARED S. — 7460 Oriskany Rd., Rome, N. Y. Please forward. Jerry traveled all summer in Europe with JOHN PERAZICH and JIMMY JONES. "The highlight of our trip was our visit on the coast of Yugoslavia on the Adriatic with PER'S relatives." Jerry entered the Navy's Officer Candidate School in September and hopes to be commissioned on February 14, 1964.

SEALOCK, BARBARA C. — 2110 Peirce Ave., Bloomington, Ill. 61701. Barbara spent most of the summer in Boston and Cambridge and did some free lance writing for The Boston Magazine. The first article (on the old market area) appeared in the August issue and the second on a Cambridge recording company is in the October issue. She is at this writing awaiting results of a Washington job application.

SERNKA, THOMAS J. — No. 8, 333A Harvard Street, Cambridge, Mass. 02139. Tom held a summer research position in Biology Honors Program at Western Reserve University. He is now studying for a Ph.D. in Physiology at Harvard on a National Science Foundation Fellowship.

SHAFER, KIRSTIN A. — 891 Massachusetts Ave., Apt. 6, Cambridge 39, Mass. Kirstin worked hard all summer and then rested by taking a trip to Canada. She is now enrolled in the Harvard M.A.T. program in history.

SHANKS, Mrs. J. MERRILL (PATRICIA FABRY SHANKS) — 2626 Geddes Avenue, Ann Arbor, Mich. Pat is teaching 7th and 8th grade science to shared time students who come to the Cherry Hill School from the parochial school. Cherry Hill School is in Inkster, Michigan. Pat and Merrill '61 spent 10 weeks this past summer traveling in mostly Austria, East and West Germany, and then Italy, France, Spain, Netherlands.

SHAPIRA, DAVID S. — 2092 Princeton Street, Palo Alto, California. Dave has been too busy to write but his mother informed us that he is studying for his Ph.D. in Economics at Stanford University.

SHELTON, ROBERT A. — Shaw Hall, 314, Cambridge 38, Mass. Bob worked for the Harshaw Chemical Co. in Elyria, Ohio, doing cost analysis work last summer. He is studying law at the Harvard Law School on the Griswold Scholarship.

SHOPE, HAROLD A. — Apt. D310, 14598 Lorain Avenue, Cleveland 11, Ohio. Hal went to work immediately after graduation as a sales trainee for Procter and Gamble. He is now a full fledged salesman.

SHORT, MRS. JACK L. (JOAN ELIZABETH EMERT SHORT) — Joan left Oberlin in February of 1963 the same month in which she was married. She finished the work for her degree at Temple University in Philadelphia and in June of 1963 started work as a systems engineer for I.B.M. She works with IBM customers setting up systems of work procedures.

SHOUSE, CAROL — 3806 Veazey Street, N.W., Washington, D. C. 20016. Carol is working for the National Academy of Sciences in Washington, D. C., supervising a scholarship program for graduate students and attending the American U. part time doing graduate work in musicology.

SIEGEL, ROGER B. — 2505 Virginia St., Berkeley, Calif. 94709. Roger is studying for his M.A. in Political Science at the U. of California at Berkeley.

SIGMAN, Mrs. DAVID (MARIAN DIAMOND) — 34 Chatham St., Cambridge 38, Mass. Marian took a job as typist in the Littauer Library at Harvard last summer. She decided to go back to school this fall. On September 7, 1963, she and David Sigman '60 were married. He is working on his Ph.D. in Chemistry at Harvard and Marian has enrolled at Boston U. for an M.A. in clinical psychology. Marian, still keeping her horizons wide open, hopes eventually to get a Ph.D. herself but will interrupt her study when it is necessary in favor of David's career. Even though she is in the first phase (the starry eyed phase) of marriage, Marian has noticed a few other Oberlinians around Cambridge — PETER GOUREVITCH and BILL FRITZMEIER among them.

SILVER, JAMES D. — 1405 West Kirby Ave., Champaign, Ill. Jim worked during the summer at the Columbia U. School of Public Health and Administrative Medicine doing epidemiological research on obesity and heart disease. He is studying for his M.A. in Labor Relations at the U. of Illinois Institute of Labor and Industrial Relations — quite a switch from his summer work.

SIMKIN, MORRIS N. — 714 East University, Ann Arbor, Michigan 48104. Morrie did some house painting in Cincinnati during the summer with weekend trips to Ann Arbor to visit CAROL GEISLER. He attended the weddings of LARRY CULP-

CLAIRE LANGSTON at Grosse Pointe, Mich., in June and of DICK FORD-KAREN COWAN Peoria, Ill., in August. Morrie is enrolled at the U. of Michigan Law School.

SLATER, JANE A. — 145 Elm Street, Oberlin, Ohio. Jane is trying to choose among various M.A.T. programs as she has decided teaching would be a rewarding career.

SMITH, JANET CAROL — 2023 Francisco, Berkeley, Calif. Janet finished at Oberlin in February of '63 and then studied art at the U. of California at Berkeley. In October of this year she started as an illustrator of artifacts for publications put out by the Office of Archaeological Research of the U. of California at Berkeley. She writes: "Still actively involved in folk-music. Play or have played in Berkeley, San Jose, Palo Alto, Big Sur and San Francisco. Was in the spring folk festival at Calif. this June — What a hassle! Still baking bread but not 15 loaves at a time. Give autoharp 'lessons' on Sat. mornings — the class always turns into a coffee and jam session and lasts until noon. Does anyone at Oberlin remember me? It seems like ages ago."

SMITH, J. OTIS — Box 7, 2029 North Broad St., Philadelphia, Pa. 19122. Otis is attending Temple University working on his M.A. in clinical psychology. He is resident assistant in a Men's Dorm and is responsible for 90 undergraduate men. He has an important message: "It probably isn't a bad idea as Class Treasurer to remind my classmates to contribute to the Memorial Fund before they have spent all their summer earnings or fellowships. At least seven '63 grads are in school in Philadelphia. Others are welcome."

SMITH, LAWRENCE D. — 50 Walnut Court, Englewood, N. J. Larry is living at home and commuting to Columbia where he planned to enroll in some special classes. As we went to press he hadn't decided to take classes which would prepare him for medicine or for law.

SMITH, Mrs. NELSON C. (KAREN BRYANT SMITH) — 6209 N.E. Radford Drive, Seattle, Wash. 98115. See M.A.T.

SMYTHE, ROBERT T. — Exeter College, University of Oxford, Oxford, England. Bob studied sound scattering by marine organisms at the Oceanographic Institute at Woods Hole, Mass., this past summer. He is the Rhodes Scholar from Oberlin this year and is studying math at Oxford.

STIEFEL, ROBERT E. — 27 Dana Street, Cambridge, Mass. 02138. Here is another of those inhabitants of that 12 room apartment at 27 Dana Street. Bob is studying for a Ph. D. in German Literature and Music History at Harvard. He spent the summer in Oberlin studying anything and everything that struck his fancy. He writes: "Harvard seems to be quietly in the hands of Oberlin graduates — they are to be found everywhere. When not tripping over Oberlinians in Widener Library or hibernating in my room (or setting the dinner table) I see them on the street. I attend as many inexpensive concerts and plays as possible and sing in the Harvard Glee Club, with which I hope to tour next summer." Bob has a Woodrow Wilson Fellowship.

STINSON, Mrs. JOEL P. (CAROL FRANKLIN STINSON) — 21750 River Oaks Drive, Apt. 304C, Rocky River, Cleveland, Ohio 44116. Carol is attending Western Reserve University School of Library Science and as part of the training is assistant children's librarian at the Lorain Ave. branch of the Cleveland Public Library.

Next fall she expects to start her graduate work in German at the U. of Connecticut, probably as a teaching assistant.

WALLY, WILLIAM N. — 2890 Wagar Rd., Cleveland 16, Ohio. Please forward. Bill is a geophysical trainee for the Robert H. Ray Geophysical Co. of Houston, Texas, but he says: "I haven't been to Texas yet. The geophysical industry is expanding into the Midwest, and so far I have worked as a computer in Somerset, Pa., recording helper in Grafton, W. Va., and am presently in Marion, Ohio, working triple capacity as computer-draftsman, permit man, and part time surveyor. The job in Marion should end in October and hopefully I will be in Texas when the really cold weather sets in and when this is printed. The oil business seems to hold a lot of promise and I am considering doing graduate work in geophysics. I haven't run into any Oberlin alumni yet since most seismic oil prospecting takes place in rather sparsely populated areas."

WANTMAN, CHARLES D. — Box 42, Mount Hermon, Mass. 01354. Charlie is the assistant alumni secretary of Mount Hermon School. He writes: "A number of men from Thompson House gathered at Camp Millikan in the Adirondacks during the summer.
